

Black Diamond PTA

Board of Directors Meeting

October 27th, 2011@3pm

Jen Leatham, Kate Harper, Karrie Hildebrand, Tina McGann and Chanon Luke all attended.

Spooktacular: The set up will begin at 2:30. Kate and Jen have lots of treats, and also lots of decorations. They also have enough volunteers for the night. It is going to be a great event.

Thanksgiving Dinner: Everything is going good. Tina is going to have a list of food items needed if members would like to donate.

Craft Bazaar: The bazaar has 19 vendors so far. They are looking to get 40. Karrie will be sending flyers home with kids asking for vendors. They are advertising on 3 websites, newspapers and signs.

Bake Sale: Jen Leatham made contact with Jenni Scharf and offered to mentor her this year. They will be meeting for coffee to discuss the event details.

Spaghetti Feed: Chanon has changed the date to February 17th. It is still a Friday night. She is looking for lots of volunteers to help the night of and also donations for the event.

Art Fair: The art fair does not have a chair. The board will continue to look for a chair.

District PTA Luncheon: Mr. Nelson would like all PTA's to meet 3 times a year. The next one is January 18th. He stressed the importance of parents to contact their legislative representatives to discuss the cuts to the education budget.

Finances: The board reviewed the current budget and agreed to present the membership with some changes. With these changes, the budget will be more accurate and balanced.

The meeting ended at 4:30 so the board could go to a PTA & the Law Training.
